

Nonprofit Grants

Organization Name	Product Description	Grant Amount
Allegheny Intermediate Unit	Funding a transition facilitator and career mentoring project leader in support of 240 Duquesne City high school students in grades 9 through 12 that will enable them to be successful during their transition to two neighboring school districts.	$149,027
Center for Schools and Communities	To enhance bullying prevention efforts in the 49-county Highmark Foundation service area by expanding and supporting existing Olweus bullying prevention programs and resources.	$2,365,033
Center for Schools and Communities	To fund the continuation of the PA Cares (Creating an Atmosphere of Respect and Environment for Success) Initiative and expand access to high quality bullying prevention programming across the Highmark Foundation service region.	$1,986,497
Columbia Montour Home Health Services, Inc.	To expand the Camp Courage grieving program for children in Columbia, Montour, Northumberland, Snyder and Union Counties.	$107,969
Columbia Montour Home Health Services, Inc.	To support the continuation of the bereavement program while expanding programs and building capacity for self-sustainability.	$94,755
Conemaugh Valley Memorial Hospital - Office of Community Health	To expand its evidence-based bullying program and create the Highmark Healthy High 5 Centers for Excellence in Bullying Prevention. The purpose is to prevent and reduce incidence of bullying behaviors among children ages K-12 in 47 PA school district served by Foundation.	$1,034,115
Diakon Lutheran Social Ministries	To support Girls on the Run of Lehigh County; a life-changing experiential learning program for girls age eight to twelve.	$53,049
East End United Community Center	To develop a volunteer-based peer support program for grieving children, adolescents and their families at a newly established bereavement center in Fayette County.	$299,618
Grace Outreach Ministries, Inc	To develop a volunteer-based peer support program for grieving children, adolescents and their families at a newly established bereavement center in Indiana County.	$270,899

Organization Name	Product Description	Grant Amount
Highlands Hospital	To support the B-Fit 4 Kids Program, a childhood health promotion/prevention program in collaboration with Connellsville Area School District.	$168,285
Holy Family Foundation	To support over 2 years the development of FitChoice Partnership, a healthy lifestyle program in collaboration with the Baierl Family YMCA, for 145 youth in residential care at Holy Family Institute.	$231,938
Home Nursing Agency	A two year grant to develop and expand volunteer-based peer support programs at two newly established bereavement centers in Blair and Cambria Counties for grieving children and their families.	$252,815
Home Nursing Agency	To continue the volunteer-based peer support programs for grieving children and their families at two bereavement centers located in Blair and Cambria Counties.	$162,433
Magee-Womens Hospital of University of Pittsburgh Medical Center	To expand the evidence-based self-esteem and healthy lifestyles program, Girls on the Run, in Beaver, Washington and Westmoreland Counties. The goal is to increase the self-esteem and physical activity levels of underserved girls in grades 3 to 5.	$53,000
Meadville Medical Center's Mind Body Wellness Center	To support the continuation of HealthJAM, a healthy lifestyle intervention for 48 overweight adolescents, ages 13-17 in Crawford County.	$98,838
Mel Blount Youth Home	To support the establishment of the new Back '2' The Basics -Lighting the Path '4' Health Future Program serving 120 at-risk youth.	$275,000
Mount Ararat Community Activity Center, Inc.	To expand Exploring the World of Pittsburgh and Beyond Mentoring Project in collaboration with Pittsburgh, Public Schools and the Mentoring Partnership of Southwestern PA. The program will serve 200 girls and boys ages 12 through 14 in grades six through eight.	$185,000
Pennsylvania Area Council of Boys &amp; Girls Clubs	To pilot the 'Triple Play Program: A Game Plan for the Mind, Body and Soul' at five Clubhouse units in Western and Central PA. The goal is to increase nutrition and physical activity knowledge and behaviors among 500 youth, ages 6-18.	$150,000
Pennsylvania State University	To support NRG-Powered by Choice, an innovative media and activism campaign targeted for youth ages 12-18.	$1,000,000
Pennsylvania State University	To support the continuation of the NRG-Powered by Choice Program activities for 2008-2011.	$1,000,000
Pittsburgh Public Schools	To provide for the Positive Behavior Intervention Support program, in collaboration with the Watson Institute at 11 Pittsburgh Public Schools as a mechanism to increase safety within classrooms and prevent bullying incidences.	$1,102,829

Organization Name	Product Description	Grant Amount
Pittsburgh Public Schools	To support the continuation of the Positive Behavior Intervention Support program, in collaboration with The Watson Institute at 15 Pittsburgh Public Schools as a mechanism to increase safety within classrooms and prevent bullying incidences from March.	$225,299
Schenley Heights Community Development Program	To enhance Physical Activity Enrichment for Youth, an integrated wellness, nutrition education, and academic support program for students ages 6-14 participating in after school and summer programs.	$141,800
Smart Futures	To regionally expand the PA eMentoring program which promotes positive self-esteem through career planning. The program in collaboration with 75 Southwestern PA schools and the Mentoring Partnership of Southwestern PA will serve 1,500 students.	$190,000
Strong Women, Strong Girls	To expand the self-esteem mentoring program, Strong Women, Strong Girls, from 12 to 14 Pittsburgh partner sites; and to support the feasibility of expanding sites outside of the city of Pittsburgh, PA.	$141,558
Susan P. Byrnes Health Education Center	To support the continuation of LearntobeHealthy.org program activities for 2008-09.	$3,554,218
Susan P. Byrnes Health Education Center, Inc.	To increase the marketing and promotion efforts of the LearntobeHealthy.org on-line educational activities program, designed for teachers, students and parents.	$1,180,989
Susan P. Byrnes Health Education Center, Inc.	To support the continuation of Learntobehealthy.org program activities for 2010-2011.	$1,500,000
The Caring Foundation	To support all programs and services of the Highmark Caring Place for calendar year 2007.	$3,185,779
The Caring Foundation	Funding to support programs and services of the Highmark Caring Place during year 2008.	$3,500,000
The Caring Foundation	To support the continuation of 2009 program and services for the Highmark Caring Place.	$3,500,000
The Caring Foundation	To support the continuation of 2010 program and services for the Highmark Caring Place.	$3,500,000
The Heartwood Institute	To produce, market and distribute Teaching Resources for Understanding Ethics (T.R.U.E.) Cards: Life Lessons - A tool to help kids think and talk about life choices.	$507,539
The Heartwood Institute	To produce, market and distribute Teaching Resources for Understanding Ethics (T.R.U.E.) Respect Bullying Prevention Kits - A tool to support bullying prevention. The goal is to reach teachers, school counselors, and parents over two years to improve bullying related issues in children grades 1 through 6 in 49 counties.	$207,505

Organization Name	Product Description	Grant Amount
The Heartwood Institute	To support management and distribution of 10,000 additional sets of T.R.U.E Cards: Life Lessons and accompanying instructional materials.	$55,800
The Second Mile	To fund the continuation of the Intensive Challenge Program: an outcomes based self-esteem program serving at-risk youth across the Highmark Foundation service area.	$80,000
The Second Mile	A Highmark Healthy High 5 grant to support the expansion of a self-esteem program serving at-risk youth by adding 150 youth.	$479,068
Tides	To expand a grieving program in Central Pennsylvania (Centre, Huntingdon, and Mifflin Counties) for children and their families.	$226,836
Tides	To fund the expansion of a grief support program that provides services for children and their families in Centre, Huntingdon, and Mifflin counties; program participation will increase by 20% each year.	$204,385
Visiting Nurse Association of St. Luke's	A grant to support 'Ryan's Tree for Grieving Children', a program of the VNA of St. Luke's Hospice.	$189,267
Windber Research Institute	To support the continuation of the Highmark Healthy High 5 HALT Bullying Prevention program.	$1,345,246
Windber Research Institute	Continuation of the Highmark Healthy High 5 HALT Bullying Prevention program to reduce the incidence of bullying behaviors among children ages K-12.	$1,250,255
YMCA of York	To support the expansion of the HIP Kids program, an evidence-based weight reduction and behavior management program. The goal is to help overweight children and their families learn to lead healthier lives.	$35,000
YMCA of York	To expand the self-esteem and healthy lifestyles program, Girls on the Run®, in York County; to increase the self-esteem and physical activity levels of underserved girls in grades 3 to 5.	$74,474

